THE PASTOR'S PAGE

As I write this, on Monday morning, December 16th, everyone is watching and waiting for a promised ice storm headed our way. Fortunately, we haven't yet had a snowstorm this year, but I'm sure it's just a matter of time! And this got me to wondering: Did Jesus ever see snow? I did a little research, and it turns out he most certainly did. Mt. Hermon, to the north of Galilee is usually snow covered, and it is plainly visible from Galilee. A little snow falls in the Judean hills an average of three days annually. And on December 13th, 2013, Jerusalem, which on very rare occasions receives a light dusting, actually received almost 2 feet of snow, the most that had fallen there since 1950.

There are only a few references to snow in the Bible, but they are interesting. 2 Samuel 23 tells of a valiant Israeli warrior named Benaiah who fought in a war against the Philistines. Verse 20 states, "He also went down and killed a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen." The book of 1 Maccabees (in the Apocrypha), tells of a foreign army led by a commander named Trypho who tried to invade Israel, but could not because of a heavy snowfall: "So Trypho got all his cavalry ready to go, but that night a very heavy snow fell, and he did not go because of the snow" (13:22). It seems that even invasions sometimes have to be called off due to snow! Or perhaps it was divine intervention. In the book of Job, God says that he sometimes uses snow to influence the outcome of wars: "Have you entered the storehouses of snow, or have you seen the storehouses of hail, which I have reserved for the time of trouble, for the day of battle and war?" (38:22).

But snow is most often mentioned in the Bible as a symbol of cleanness and purity. Psalm 51:7 says, "Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow." Isaiah 1:18 says, "Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be like snow." The book of Proverbs describes snow as refreshing: "Like the cold of snow in the time of harvest are faithful messengers to those who send them; they refresh the spirit of their masters" (25:13). The reference to snow in Psalm 147 is especially appropriate for the upcoming Lenten season: "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem! Praise your God, O Zion! He sends out his commands to the earth; his word runs swiftly. He gives snow like wool; he scatters frost like ashes."

Those words give us something to ponder as we begin the penitential season of Lent next month on Ash Wednesday. Ashes are usually thought of as dirty; but at one time ashes were used as a cleaning agent when soap wasn't available. On Ash Wednesday, one of the symbolic purposes of having ashes put on our forehead is as a sign of penitence and commitment to cleansing ourselves from sin. Ashes are also a symbol of our mortality. The ashes are placed upon our foreheads with these words: “Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return.” Those dirty ashes become a sign of cleansing and of hope—cleansing from our sins and the hope of new life. The ashes are put on our foreheads in the sign of a cross, which for Christians is a symbol of how new life comes through death.

This month, on the Sunday of the Baptism of Our Lord (January 12th), we will once again have the annual opportunity to reaffirm our baptisms and return to the font to have holy water put on our foreheads in the sign of a cross as I say, “Child, of God remember your baptism when you were marked with the cross of Christ forever.” And in February, on Ash Wednesday, we will have the opportunity to again have that cross traced on our foreheads, this time with ashes as a grim reminder that death will one day come to us all. But thanks to the cross of Christ, we know that death and the grave are the doorway to new life. It is because we have been marked with the cross of Christ that we can go through life with the constant assurance that our sins are forgiven and eternal life is ours.

In the “Bleak Midwinter” that we are now in, may the gray, sooty snow on the roadsides remind us of ashes. And may the cleanness of fresh, white snow remind us of our cleansing from sin and the promise of eternal life. In the book of Revelation, St. John sees a vision of the future—of the multitudes of people in heaven dressed in white robes. And an angel tells him, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal, they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb” (Rev. 22:14). May the white snow of winter help us to look forward to the coming spring of new life.

Pastor Jeff

CHURCH DOORS

As part of our on-going commitment to providing a safe environment to joyfully worship the Lord, we will be keeping the front doors locked on Sunday mornings from 9:15 A.M. on. Greeters will be on duty to open the doors and welcome you to your morning worship. This recommendation came out of the intruder training by the Kutztown Police Department. Thank you, everyone, for your cooperation and understanding.

A YEAR-END THANK YOU

As we begin another year we need to stop and say thank you to ALL those who gave of their time, talents, and treasures to insure ministry happened here at Zion's these past 12 months. Also thank you everyone that sponsored the altar flowers and/or bulletins at the last minute when no sponsors had signed up and for those who filled in as security persons, greeters, and ushers when needed.

MUSIC THANK YOU

Thank you to all choirs, instrumentalists, and soloists for their talents during the Christmas holiday.

REMINDER ABOUT OUR CARD MINISTRY

NEW BILINGUAL PENNSYLVANIA GERMAN (DUTCH) AND ENGLISH PICTURE BOOK

Mary Laub has recently published Book 3 in a series of bilingual books. The title is "Uff der Bauerei: Wu iss der Spunky?" (On the Farm: Where is Spunky?). All the books in the series are uniquely different in that there is a phonetic spelling under each word to assist the reader in pronouncing the words. There is also an English translation under the phonetic spelling. A recording of the story is available as a free audio download or a CD can be purchased. Book 3 includes a picture glossary to help in learning PA German words. Books and CDs can be purchased directly from Mary. There is a sign-up sheet on the upstairs bulletin board. The books are also sold at local businesses including Wooden Bridge Fabrics, Leid's Saddlery, Dietrich's Meats, Burkholder Farm Market (Topton Road), and others. They can also be purchased online at Amazon.com or www.masthof.com. Mary will autograph books upon request.

SPIRIT ON TAP – READING

Spirit on Tap will be held January 28th at 7:00 P.M. at the DoubleTree Hotel, 701 Penn St., Reading. The events are free and open to all. On January 28th, Dr. Stephen Ohnsman will present "The Lies We've Been Told: Twisting Scripture to Fit Our Needs". For more information, contact Dr. Harry L. Serio at 610-944-7032 or HLSerio@aol.com or Dr. Robert Stewart at 610-775-2836 or rastheo1951@msn.com.

MYSTERY MEMBER

I hope everyone identified Jacqueline (Jackie) and Barry Ziegler as the Mystery Members last month. I should add that Jackie is the person who makes and sends all the beautifully crafted greeting cards to our senior members. Now let's meet another member who is a relative newcomer to the congregation in comparison to many of us.

She was born in Gloucester City, NJ. She grew up with five brothers and one sister in the small borough of National Park, NJ. "As the middle child things were usually hectic. I was either having a fantastic time with them or being bullied by the other ones. My favorite time was when I could walk in the woods or play on the lawn with the grass fairies and my dollhouse.

She graduated from Woodbury High School, attended MOTA to become a secretary, and was trained at STAR Institute as a Medical Office Tech.

She was married in 2015 after dating her husband for ten years. Theirs was the first wedding performed by Pastor Jeff here at Zion's Church. It was a small family wedding with her oldest son as her "maid of Honor" while her two other sons walked her down the aisle to give her away. Her husband's daughter was his "Best Man". Their honeymoon was in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands where their greatest challenge was remembering to drive on the opposite side of the road.

She has been employed at the Philadelphia Naval Yard, as an assistant teacher in the Pascagoula School System for 15 years, and at the Pocono Medical Center, Lehigh Valley Hospital, which was then St. Clare's Hospital in NJ for 15 years. Her present job allows her to provide a comfortable, clean, well-organized space for many.

She has three sons as previously mentioned. She is also the proud Grandma of 10 and Great Grandmother of 3.

Her hobbies include reading, sewing, finding and bringing life back to old furniture, yard sales, antiques, and flea markets. Her church activities include Seeders and Sowers, Senior Ministry, WIZ, Bible Study, and Reflections.

Who is she??

THEOLOGY WITH A TWIST

Theology with a Twist will be held January 14th at 7:00 P.M. at the Kutztown Tavern, 272 W. Main St., Kutztown. Theology with a Twist is free. Food and drink are available for purchase. SYNOD NEWS

Northeastern Pennsylvania Synod, ELCA

Open Arms Senior Connection - Arndt's, Easton

For over 17 years, grants totaling more than a half million dollars have been made possible through mission support giving. Grant applications are received by the Witness and Service Ministry Team and are awarded based on the outreach the grant will accomplish.

The story that follows is written by the founders and the current program director of Open Arms Senior Connection. It tells of an inspiring ministry that got its beginning because of a vision, the need to help others, and the available grant funds that allowed it to thrive.

Over ten years ago a small Welcome and Outreach committee at Arndt's Lutheran Church in Forks Township was looking for another ministry that could use their resources. The congregation came together to modify their existing spaces using funds predominantly from a Transforming Congregations grant and a Witness and Service grant, both of which are mission support grant programs available through the Synod.

Today "Open Arms Senior Connection" continues as a two-day a week program for older adults in the greater Easton community. Realizing that the time some of the participants spend at Open Arms might be the only times during the week that they enjoy a meal with someone, or have any human contact at all, inspires the congregation to make the program as effective and impactful as possible.

The success of this program is due in great part to two paid co-directors and all the volunteers. The program runs on a budget of about $1000 per month, which goes toward daily beverages and snacks, basic supplies, and salaries.

Donations, fundraisers, and Witness and Service grants from the Northeastern Pennsylvania Synod of the ELCA has allowed this program to reach and provide long term benefits to hundreds of older adults in the region.

To learn more about the activities and outreach of this ministry, please read the full story on the synod website (nepasynod.org/open-arms-senior/) or look for it on the facebook page "Mission Interpreters of NEPA Synod." Remember to "Like" and "Share." You can also print a bulletin insert.

Sharing Life - St. Mark, Allentown

Sharing Life is the brain child of Sue Krasley, a parishioner of St. Mark's, who worked at Allentown State Hospital and who had concerns about individuals losing peer relationships due to the closure of the hospital in 2010. At the time, Pastor Brindjar graciously and enthusiastically afforded the opportunity to begin our mission by opening the doors of St. Mark's for a monthly gathering.

What originated as a modest idea of serving a monthly luncheon nine years ago has expanded into a much sought-after experience by our community; it now includes monthly Craft days led by St. Mark's talented artists Brenda Mann and Charlie Orbin.

As our events grew, our attendees have become diverse; and today, monthly events not only include individuals formerly served at Allentown State Hospital, but also embrace individuals with Intellectual Developmental Disabilities as well as the community at large.

Throughout the years the echo and sentiment of Pastor Brindjar's mantra can still be heard: "Stay Calm and Carry On". Due to the success of our mission, and because we often find ourselves serving upwards of 120 individuals each month, we have adopted another mantra: "fishes and loaves."

Because of St. Mark's willingness to take a risk and open their doors and hearts, our mission isn't just about serving individuals lunch. More important is offering to individuals our acceptance, an opportunity to form new friendships, and a welcome to a faith-based community. All activities and luncheons are free to participants and are funded lovingly by our mighty Committee members, St. Mark parishioners, and community donors.

Deadline for 2019 Mission Support Contributions January 31, 2020

Checks must be in the office (not postmarked) by that date. Also, it is important that the Remittance Form is marked correctly to indicate whether a contribution is intended for the year 2019 or 2020. After the January 31 cutoff date, all receipts will be credited as 2020 contributions.

Companions in Christ

STORIES OF FAITH
IN ACTION
2019 • 2020

he global church is a reality, not just an abstract concept, for the thousands of Lutherans engaged in ELCA companion-synod relationships.

"Companion synods nurture a church that is global, not only the parochial enclave of being together," said Rafael Malpica Padilla, executive director of ELCA Global Mission.

Sixty-four ELCA synods have at least one global-church companion. Because many synods relate to multiple companion churches, more than 120 companion-synod relationships exist. Most participating churches, including the ELCA, are members of the Lutheran World Federation (LWF). Mission Support funding enhances the ministry of the LWF and the companion-synod program.

For Martin Malley of Ralston, Neb., participating in the Nebraska Synod's relationship with the Northern Diocese of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tanzania "enlarges my worldview and lets me see outside my box."

Visiting Tanzania during a synod trip was Malley's first peek beyond his "box." "By the end of the weekend, I was so taken with the people and the beauty of the place that I was on fire!" he said.

Now Malley serves as the synod's volunteer coordinator of Tanzania ministries, weaving myriad Nebraska-Tanzania connections into the fabric of the synod and diocese. Scores, if not hundreds, of Lutherans have traveled between Nebraska and Tanzania and built long-standing personal relationships over time, said Brian Maas, bishop of the Nebraska Synod.

Nebraskans and Tanzanians swap pulpits, visit each other's schools and congregations, and keep in touch via Facebook. Nebraskans have donated generously to the Northern Diocese, funding scholarships, purchasing textbooks, equipping evangelists with motorcycles and more. But "this is not about us doing projects," Malley said. "It's about us having Christian friends on the other side of the world."

In companion-synod relationships, care and support flow both ways. Visitors from the Nkuu Kati Lutheran parish took note when Malley and other members of Messiah Lutheran in Ralston showed how they were retrofitting the church's bathrooms to accommodate people of all abilities. "Three months later [Nkuu Kati] sent a check for $300 to support our project," Malley said. "We knew then that this was a partnership."

"This is not about us doing projects," said ELCA member Martin Malley of the ELCA Nebraska Synod's relationship with the Northern Diocese of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tanzania. "It's about us having Christian friends on the other side of the world." Your Mission Support gifts enhance the ELCA companion-synod program.
